Men of Service Love, Relationships & Family

Great service?

In Australia today, it seems one measure of greatness is the number of people at your service – washing your car, getting your coffee, cleaning your house, mowing your lawn.

But Jesus says if you want to be a great man in His kingdom you need to be ready to serve others. And that's the example Jesus himself set – the one who “did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.”

mkc 10 is all about “Men of Service: Love, Relationships & Family” and will confront men to be great by offering their lives in service to their wives, families, friends, workmates and everyone they encounter.

Put your hand up – join us in 2010 to be challenged by Song of Songs (Gary Millar), Philippians (John Dickson) and Tin Shed Time, and enjoy the privilege of spending a weekend with thousands of other Christian men at mkc.

Speakers

Gary Millar

Gary Millar is a 43 year old husband to Fiona, father of three daughters and has been a pastor for 16 years - he is also a proud Irishman (at least when they are winning!) They live in North Dublin in the Irish Republic in a village called Malahide, where half of U2 come from (The Edge grew up in the Presbyterian church where Gary is pastor). Gary loves eating spicy food and watching the West Wing with Fiona, cycling with the girls, and playing or watching anything involving a ball (especially golf, cricket and soccer).

John Dickson

John is a busy author and public speaker, who used to be a singer (and often wishes he still was). He is Director of the Centre for Public Christianity in Sydney and teaches a course on New Testament history in the Department of Ancient History, Macquarie University. He is married to Buff and has three children.
